

Recycling centre opening hours to be cut

■ County council proposes weekend closure to appease local residents

WEEKEND closure of Bridport's Household Recycling Centre may be the only option if the site's temporary planning consent is to be extended for a sixth time.

Dorset County Council has proposed the weekend closure to appease nearby residents, following complaints about the most recent application for planning consent.

This would leave Bridport residents facing weekend trips to sites across the border in Crewkerne and Chard for up to three years until the new waste transfer station is built.

Bridport Town Council discussed the proposal at Monday night's plans committee and concluded that, at best, restricted opening hours at weekends would be needed to deal with demand or it could lead to widespread fly-tipping.

Councillors also asked about at that time anyway. "I'd like to see we recommend not having a blanket closure."

Calls for restricted hours were met with concern by town surveyor Daryl Chambers who said concentrated usage of the site would lead to a "complete bottleneck" of traffic down South Street.

Dorset County Council's head of waste management Steve Burdis said: "We are in discussions with the county council's planning officers to try and find a suitable solution to keep the South Street household recycling facility open while we work to deliver a much needed waste management facility for the Bridport area.

"As part of these discussions, we are looking at closing the site at weekends and are currently assessing the impact this would have on traffic in the area.

Death Notice

EMMETT – on 29th October 2010, peacefully in Dorset County Hospital after a short illness. Joyce May aged 91 years of Lyme Regis. Much loved Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother. Funeral service will take place at St Michael, The Angel Church, Lyme Regis, on Tuesday 9th November 2010 at 1.30pm followed by cremation at Yeovil Crematorium. Family flowers only please. Donations in memory of Joyce for Weldmar Hospicecare Trust c/o AJ Wakely & Sons, 7a Silver Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3HR, tel: 01297 443835.

FATHER-of-five Mark Mabey lives in Netherbury with his wife and children.

He was brought up in Southampton and attended King Edward VI School before training as a chartered quantity surveyor over a number of years with day release attendance at Southampton College of Further Education.

He has worked in the private sector and public sector as well as the in-between housing association sector and currently works for Magna as head of development.

Mark had an interesting spell at work for London Underground in fire safety improvement, following the King's Cross fire in the late 1980s.

His hobbies and interests include fishing, travelling, history and tracing his family tree. He has traced his family back to both Netherbury (18th century) and Powerstock (17th century).

WHAT does your job involve?

I head a team of about a dozen staff who are responsible for the new house building programme across Magna Housing Group. So a combination of line management of staff as well as working with Directors and non-executive members on the development strategy and financial implications of being an active affordable housing business. My day-to-day work at the moment includes getting our team revenue budget and new housing capital budgets prepared for next year.

WHAT is the best part of your job?

Visiting live building sites, which I do less often now than I used to. An active site has quite a buzz to it and meeting new residents who have just moved into their new homes. The latter is what our work is all about.

WHAT schemes are you currently working on?

My team is working on a number of projects. The most local to Bridport is the site at Dibdin View (Flaxhayes) for 57 new homes' which should be complete next spring.

WHAT would be your dream job?

Running a post office in rural New Zealand – being a combination of a childhood desire to run a post office and an evolving desire to live in New Zealand.

WHERE is the best place you have visited?

I've been fortunate enough to visit many countries and recently spent five months away from work travelling with my family so a difficult one to answer – but perhaps the most unusual place – because of what is there – is Moeraki on the east coast of New Zealand's South Island. The beach there is strewn with crystal-filled circular boulders that are 'conceived' underground and 'born' often via the cliffs onto the beach.

WHERE would you still like to go?

China – our plane had an abortive take-off from Hong Kong last year and so we spent an unexpected night in Hong Kong which has whetted my appetite to see more of what is in my view the real China.

WHICH football team do you support and what are their chances this season?

I've supported Tottenham Hotspur since the early 1970s and I'm glad to say that I think this year 'we' can finish in the top five securing a place in European Competition next year. It's about time they won the FA Cup again – so fingers crossed on that one.

WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party and why?

Nikola Tesla – a very clever man who could tell us how to sort out our future energy needs.

Michelangelo di Lodovico Buonarroti Simoni or Mike to his friends – another man way ahead of his time – would love to hear what he would be working on now if he was still alive.

Ronnie Rosenthal – an ex-professional footballer who had a short spell with Spurs – so I could chat about Spurs but also say that I would have scored against Aston Villa when he managed to miss an open goal from about two yards out.

WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

I'm reading a book about the origins of Freemasonry – lots of thought provoking ideas linking ancient stories to modern belief systems and how and when what we know today as Freemasons may have evolved. The last film was Stranger than Fiction, courtesy of a work colleague, classed as a comedy but found quite an interesting concept. Worth a view but do not expect too many laugh out loud moments. The last CD was a home-made compilation courtesy of my teenage daughters including Justin Bieber who is apparently a well-known Canadian singer.

Proposal for new West Bay festival

WEST Bay could become Edinburgh-on-Sea if plans for a new festival along the esplanade are given the green light.

In the 1950's the esplanade was regularly closed for community events and Bridport town councillor Karl Wallace last week raised the possibility of re-igniting that tradition.

"There appears to have been a history of it so why not let's go back down that avenue," he said.

"There is a natural high pavement along the esplanade which lends itself to a stage, there is the turning circle at the end which could be used and there is the new area there as well. You could have several people doing several things at a time down there."

Councillor Wallace has been discussing the possibility with kiosk holders and nearby residents. After initial caution from some kiosk holders he now believes they would welcome a festival as long as they had vehicle access to their outlets.

PRINCE EDWARD PAYS A VISIT TO PALMERS BREWERY

PALMERS Brewery welcomed its first royal visitor in its 216-year history last week, when HRH Prince Edward came to Bridport.

During his visit the Earl of Wessex started a brew of Palmers Dorset Gold before unveiling a plaque to commemorate his visit.

This was the first Royal visit since the brewery's foundation in 1794, however the Earl wrote a foreword for the brewery in 2008 for Palmers: The Story of a Dorset Brewer a book about its history.

After unveiling a plaque next to the mash tun, the Earl of Wessex was given a tour of the Old Brewery by chairman and MD John Palmer, sales and marketing director Cleeves Palmer, and Head Brewer Darren Batten.

He met staff, including

Palmers' longest serving employee Andrew Samways (32 years) and took a keen interest in the brewing process.

He then moved on to Palmers Wine Store, where he signed the visitors' book after a short tour.

Recycling centre closure

It is a difficult situation but unfortunately closing the site midweek rather than weekends would not address the key concern of noise and lack of amenity for residents living in the immediate area. Therefore it is not considered a suitable solution.

The planning application will be considered by Dorset County Council's Planning Committee on December 3rd.

Councillors universally opposed the weekend closure of the site. Councillor Keith Day said: "This would be a complete lack of amenity and the town will suffer because of it. It would be very sad if we lost that amenity at the weekend, and I hate to say it, but because of a few people a lot more will suffer because of it."

Councillor Rickard added: "They haven't really looked at this properly from both sides. They should come back with a better split of the times so the problems we have highlighted don't occur."

"We understand the concerns of local people and in the event that the South Street facility has to close, we strongly urge residents to maximise the use of their existing kerbside collection scheme as well as local mini recycling banks.

"The option of providing further enhanced kerbside collections of recyclables whilst the new site is delivered is not financially viable at this time.

"We are keen to encourage local people to recycle their rubbish and will continue to keep residents informed as things develop. Our priority is to secure an

by Tom Glover

"I think it would be perfect for a festival or as part of a bigger festival with Bridport. We could have a comedy festival, a mini fringe festival like they have in Edinburgh, it could be really exciting," he said.

"It would definitely bring a lot more people to the area so it could only be good for tourism."

Town councillor Roger Stoodley supported the idea. He said: "I'm talking 60 years ago now but in the summer we used to have dances on the esplanade. We'd usually just play music through the speakers but then sometimes we would have a live band there as well.

"I think if we closed it too often then it would lose its impetus but I would certainly support the occasional event there. I think it would be good for everybody down at West Bay. It used to be well supported and I'm sure it would be again."

Councillor Wallace also suggested closing the esplanade from Thursday to Sunday throughout the summer months, providing a regular street entertainment space and also helping deal with the problems of 'boy racers' along the stretch of road.

The idea has been met with concern from some councillors, who believe there are other more pertinent issues to be dealt with.

Councillor Martin Ray said: "This idea first came about five or six years ago at West Dorset District Council when it was suggested by the technical services officer who was new to the council and it was thrown out. This idea has not been discussed with the local Liberal Democrats but the first thing we would want to do is properly consult with the local residents.

"This is not part of the town plan and there are other ideas which need to come forward first."

The idea was raised at the town council's highways and transportation sub-committee last week.

Nine people hurt in A35 crash

NINE People were taken to Dorset County Hospital on Monday afternoon after a four car crash on the A35.

The collision occurred two miles west of Winterbourne Abbas when a red and silver Mitsubishi 4x4, travelling towards Bridport, veered into oncoming traffic.

The Mitsubishi collided with three cars travelling in the opposite direction; a silver Mercedes, silver Mazda and a green Volkswagen Passat.

Occupants were trapped in both the Mercedes and Volkswagen cars and had to be rescued by the Fire Brigade, Ambulance and Air Ambulance crews.

The incident which took place around 1:20pm on Monday afternoon closed the road in both directions for two hours.

Nine people in total were taken to hospital with a range of injuries, some serious; next of kin have been informed.

New lights could cost thousands

NEW heritage lighting columns in Bridport town centre could cost thousands to install.

Towns throughout Dorset are currently having their street lamps reviewed as part of a 25-year project to update to more efficient lighting.

Southern Electric Contracting in partnership with Dorset County Council are overseeing the project to bring the county's lighting up to British standards.

Bridport Town Council have requested that heritage columns are installed in the town centre but these could come at a cost of around £900 each.

The heritage columns would be black and more in keeping with surroundings than standard streetlights.

They would also have a facility for hanging banners and Christmas lighting and possibly have in built plug sockets for use by stallholders.

Town Clerk Daryl Chambers has requested that heritage columns are installed in East, West and South Street, but not until the council has been fully consulted on the design of the columns. The total needed is not yet known but is expected to be between 25 and 30.

BRIDPORT CRIME UPDATE

A TOTAL of seven arrests were made in Bridport last week including two for assault and two for failure to appear in court.

Crimes of note include:

- Criminal damage at a farm in West Bay. Silage bales were unwrapped and several rolled into the river on Saturday, October 23rd.

- Charity boxes and till money was stolen from The Five Bells Inn, Whitchurch Canonicorum on Monday of last week. Entry was gained to the building via a side window.

VEHICLE THEFTS
Sat Nav equipment, mobile phones and musical instruments were stolen following a series of car break-ins on Wednesday of last week.

In total five vehicles, parked in Jessop Avenue and the surrounding estates, were entered.

In several of these cases the vehicles were left unsecured and valuable items were clearly on display.

Bridport police remind vehicle owners that taking prudent steps to remove their valuables and locking their vehicles is often the first step in thwarting any opportunist thief.

GUY FAWKES NIGHT
Bridport Police have reminded adults to take responsibility for their fireworks and bonfires this Guy Fawkes night.

PC Scott McGregor said: "During any Guy Fawkes Night celebration I ask that responsible adults ensure that the evening is enjoyable and safe, by making sure that any use of fireworks or bonfires are controlled and supervised.

"I also ask that no fireworks be discharged after 11pm; this is not only stipulated by law, but also about being considerate to other residents.

"Fireworks, like alcohol and tobacco, are an age specific product; if such items are supplied to juveniles or if juveniles are in possession of any then it is an offence and action may be taken against the person supplying such items."

Recycler The Robot spreads the word on being green

RECYCLER the rapping robot has been spreading the word on waste with a West Dorset tour.

The interactive educational show run by Waste Watch, in partnership with Dorset County Council, visited primary and secondary schools across the county teaching the modern day three 'Rs'.

The three Rs for waste management are 'reduce, reuse and recycle' and were taught by 'Recycler' the robot and fellow presenter Shirley Barre.

The rapping robot taught pupils a song and dance routine and even gave out prizes after a quiz.

Recycling promotions Officer for Dorset County Council, Dave

Levi, said: "The shows have been going great and we have had a great response from the schools and the pupils. The children actually know a lot more than you think which is excellent.

"We are just giving the same message but because it is coming from a different source it really connects with the children."

Devon and Dorsets lay up their standard in Bridport ceremony

THE Bridport branch of the Devonshire and Dorset Regimental Association have laid up their standard.

Members of the association paraded from South Street car park along South Street to St Mary's Church, accompanied by Mike Pike and Steve Chard of the Wessex Military Band. Mr Pike also sounded the Last Post and the Reveille.

During the ceremony the old standard was laid down watched by representatives from Gillingham, Purbeck, Bridport Royal Navy Association and Chard's Royal Navy association.

Bridport branch president Geoff Ackerman handed over the standard during the ceremony conducted by Canon Andrew Evans.

Branch chairman Ron Beale read the exhortation and the Kohima Epitaph.

Local scientist wins NASA award

■ A RETIRED scientist in Bridport has won an award from space exploration experts NASA after designing a device to harness the power of lightning.

Ian Gallon, who has lived in Bridport for the last 16 years, beat over 700 other entrants with his idea for Electra.

The challenge, posed by NASA and administrated by Innocentive, was titled "Lightning as an Alternative Energy Source".

Ian was one of eight award winners in the challenge but the only entrant to win an award in three of the four sections of the challenge.

Ian's design worked as both a protection method for NASA sites, particularly in Midwest America where lightning storms are regular occurrences, as well as converting the lightning itself into heat energy.

Ian said: "It's not a trivial thing to do but having got the final idea it took me about a week. I spent a month trying out ideas, which didn't work out before that.

"I don't know what NASA will do with it now, I have no contact with them myself. The idea I've presented could be developed and made into a viable proposition but whether they are interested in doing it I don't know, we will have to wait and see."

Ian spent much of his career working with high voltages and large currents and determining how to protect electronics from the effects of large amplitude radio waves, this led to him becoming the UK chairman of three intergovernmental committees.

He also trained NATO on protection methods for their communication networks, and was a consultant on Eurofighter, Eurocopter, Mars Express and a number of communication satellites.

He is now active in the University of the Third Age, helping run the 'Maths for Fun' group and is also a director of Transition Town Bridport.

Ian is currently working on another NASA challenge to develop a new method for monitoring underground nuclear testing.

New 'seagull proof' bags put to the test

NEW seagull proof waste sacks are being trialled in Bridport and Lyme Regis to tackle the problem of rubbish strewn across the streets.

The sacks can hold two to three bags full of rubbish at a time and can be folded down for easy storage when not in use.

Bridport Town Council's Environment Committee have negotiated a deal with West Dorset District Council to provide the sacks for a reduced rate of £5.

Chairman of the Environment Committee, Councillor Dave Rickard, said: "We have been trying to get access to these bags

by Tom Glover

since last September.

"The most important thing for me is that this is a softer solution, it is a more flexible option than the wheelie bins which a lot of people have been calling for.

"This does the same job but it can be folded up and taken indoors afterwards.

"This is a pilot, and they are at a reduced price, so we urge people living in the town to use them."

Bridport Town Councillor Ros Kayes added: "We were aware that much of the waste coming from bin bags comes from shops as well as residents and although West Dorset were initially sceptical, when we explained that the collection times for the trade waste affects the length of time the bags are out, they could see the rationale."

There are currently 100 of the seagull proof sacks on trial in Bridport and Lyme Regis, they are available from Mountfield in Bridport and Lyme Regis TIC.

WDDC services manager Ian Doyle said: "It's great, it gives people the ability to be flexible and it meets the local demand."

Citizens Advice Bureau search for new recruits

NEW advisors and volunteers are needed to help cope with the sudden surge of enquiries at the Bridport and District Citizens Advice Bureau.

The bureau is looking to fill two areas of specialism in particular - one in debt and the other in benefits - providing comprehensive and ongoing training to anyone who feels that this is something they would like to volunteer for.

An IT expert is also needed as the bureau as they look to set up an Intranet system to streamline in-house communications along with the production and analysis of statistics.

The bureau is also looking to recruit more volunteer admin support. One such vacancy is that of Appeal Support Workers.

Volunteers are needed to support benefits specialists in preparing clients for their appeals.

Volunteers must be well organised with an attention to detail and also willing to have some client contact.

There is also a need for more volunteer receptionists to help man the desks at the bureau's expanding offices in South Street.

Other admin vacancies exist, to help with general office duties, such as filing and typing letters. For information on any admin. roles please contact Admin Supervisor, Carol Pearson, or the Bureau Manager, Martin Paley on 01308 456594 or e-mail advice@bridport-cab.org.uk. Alternatively call in to the bureau at 45, South Street, next door to the library.

If you are interested in finding out more about becoming an advisor, please contact the Guidance Tutor, Richard Warner.

Artistic Quarter continues to flourish with Vintage Fair

by Tom Glover

BRIDPORT town councillors were up early on Sunday morning as they turned out to support the latest success story at St Michael's Trading Estate.

Councillors visited the fourth Vintage Market, the latest venture at the artistic quarter, which adds outside stalls to the existing country antiques and 'vintage' units at St Michael's.

"It's really inspiring in these straitened economic times to see small local businesses regenerating this area and our local economy," said town and district councillor Ros Kayes.

"A number of us have written to the landlords supporting this initiative and saying how much it is helping to regenerate the economy of Bridport.

"Sometimes we don't need millions of pounds spent for an area to be regenerated. People here are doing it for themselves. This isn't a phoney redevelopment - it's grown out of the community and there's a real spirit and atmosphere that people love."

"It's great for Bridport," said local artist Kit Glaisyer, who has a studio next door in the St Michael's Studio complex, "we're getting hundreds of new visitors who are coming to explore the art & vintage quarter."

The Vintage Market and all the retro furniture and artefacts have filled up most of the available units on the estate, including the former Top Gear site, alongside the organic Red Brick Café. They're all helping to bring new trade into the town.

"People are coming just to see what's happening and then they drift into town, discover our excellent street market and use the local shops as well," added Kit.

The town council last week supported plans for new signage in the town centre to direct visitors to the artistic quarter.

Come and be shot by Dawn!

LOCAL photographer Dawn Potter, pictured below right, has a great eye for her subject and her great love is capturing people.

On Saturday, November 13th Dawn is undertaking a new project aiming to photograph as many of Bridport's townsfolk as possible when she holds a free portrait photo shoot at the Bull Hotel, East Street in Bridport.

Dawn will be taking head and shoulder portrait photos of everyone for an exhibition which she will be holding at the same venue two weeks later on Saturday, November 27th.

Dawn undertakes a wide range of photographic assignments from family portraits to event photography, and commercial work such as producing images for businesses advertising needs. The aim of The Bull photo shoot is to photograph as many of Bridport's finest faces as possible.

All ages are welcome from 1 to 100 (plus!) as Dawn would love to capture a wide cross-section of Bridport's residents.

The photo shoot will lead to what Dawn hopes will be an exciting exhibition of a multitude of Bridport's finest faces.

All of the photos will be on sale at the exhibition, so you can walk away with your own personal portrait or even buy them as great Christmas gifts.

Why not pop in and see Dawn on Saturday 13th from 10am-4pm - she would love to shoot you! You can also enjoy a great cup of coffee in the Bull after being shot!

You can find out more about Dawn at www.dawnpotter.co.uk or you can contact Dawn at info@dawnpotter.co.uk or on 07875 635225.

A spooktacular night out!

■ A HALLOWEEN murder mystery night in Bridport proved a marvellous success for the town's newest amateur dramatics group.

Marvellous Amateur Dramatics (MAD) cast, pictured above, became movie producers, directors and stars for the evening as they turned St Mary's Church Hall into the wrap party of their latest horror flick 'I'm Your Number One Fang'.

Guests were entertained by an evening of improvised performance on Saturday night, and then used their sleuthing skills to try and uncover the murderer in the line up.

Top detective on the night was Paul Cosser, who correctly deduced that production company boss Don Cannelloni (Tom Glover), had been behind the deaths of both Gracie Dullard (Jasmine Northover) and Carla Di Lucci (Lauren Antinoro).

Also starring in the show were Ben Kapur and Zuzka Aukett as hot shot director Sam Wannital and his author wife Ivana, Roy Bowskill as former star Rex Bannister and Callam Thom as young director Nick Noble.

The group raised £150, which will help fund their first Bridport show 'Our House' to be performed at the Electric Palace next spring.

Organisers thanked everyone who came and took part as well as everybody who volunteered their time to make the evening a success.

U3A launch new groups

SIX new groups are being launched by Bridport & District University of the Third Age (U3A).

Three new arts and crafts groups as well as poetry, story telling and advanced Italian are set to begin following the group's October meeting.

The three arts and crafts groups will be card making, lace making and knit & natter.

There are also plans to

The new groups were announced at the monthly U3A meeting at the Christian Fellowship Hall, Bridport.

A collection was taken at the meeting for AIDS charities following a talk by Robin Miller.

Speaker at the November meeting will be Anna Pavord, gardening writer and correspondent of The Independent newspaper.

She is the author of the best seller The Tulip and her latest book, The Curious Gardener, is published this month.

Anna lives in Dorset and she will be speaking on the gardens of historic houses in West Dorset. Non-members are welcome to attend, but there is a charge of £3.

ViewLetters Palmers pub sale controversy

DOES the sudden 'bolt-for-the-line' decision by Palmers to find a purchaser to sign-up a lease for The Old Swan, Toller, in just six weeks' time, and sell Palmers' beer for them for up to 999 years, look rather hasty, after 12 years of 'Shutdown, Dilapidate and Rot'?

And why the lease contract and not a freehold sale? The latter was selected by Toller when West Dorset District Council gave them options to select from to promote - Toller's first answer has always been compulsory purchase with resale on a back-to-back basis with a commercial buyer. If not, then freehold sale by Palmers to Toller (with WDDC compulsory purchase as fall-back).

Are Palmers really expecting such a lease with beer-tie to be signed? Or challenging WDDC to compulsory purchase? Or suggesting 'We've made an offer, so give us change of use'?

Would the reader, if they had the funds, sign-up for the lease guide-price of £475,000 (if one includes Palmers' surveyor's previous assessment that the necessary refurbishment / redevelopment cost is already £300,000)?

This compares with the Elm Tree at Langton Herring at £149,900 in good running order (short lease, renewable) or The Ship Inn at Dorchester - up to £85,000 for 20 years' lease.

Will WDDC now implement what Cllr Gould has consistently repeated WDDC 'will do' in the last resort, and use the 'force' of the Compulsory Purchase Act - as the West Norfolk Council successfully did in Gt Massingham - to re-open a shut pub there?

This could enable WDDC to finally stop being the council with the worst record on a "community eyesore" pub throughout the UK, end this ghastly eyesore blight in Toller Pororum, and allow locals and tourist visitors to be served?

JOHN GRANTHAM
Community Alert

PALMERS' auction of The Old Swan in Toller Pororum is scheduled for 3pm on December 16th in Toller Village Hall.

Now that we have some details, we note that there will be a draught beer tie on the 999 year lease, so it will still be a tied Palmers' pub. Who in their right mind would tie themselves to Palmers for almost a thousand years?

The guide price of £175,000 plus £300,000 for modernisation of Palmers' own building (a total of £475,000) plus a draught beer tie is ludicrous and hardly likely to attract serious bidders.

Why not sell it freehold? We know why! We know what John Palmer's attitude to Toller is - and has been for the past ten years since he lost his appeal for planning permission for change of use.

Talk focuses on the future of our coastline

THE United Church Hall in Bridport was packed last Monday (October 25th) to hear Tony Flux, Coastal Zone Project Manager for West Dorset

National Trust, give an illustrated talk on 'Caring for The Coast: The Next 100 Years'.

The audience comprised members of the Golden Cap Centre of the National Trust and the general public.

In an absorbing presentation with superb graphics, Tony illustrated just how our coast has evolved over thousands of years and explained how today's landslides and rock falls are not only part of that natural process but also how they make our coastline so special.

Our coastline is nonetheless under ever-increasing threat from erosion and to adapt effectively to sea level rise and climate change we need to plan at least 50 to 100 years ahead.

In the South West, the Trust cares for 716 kilometres of coastline, including around a quarter of the Jurassic World Heritage Coastline, and 35 per cent of its erosion 'hot spots' are in this part of the world.

Each one requires a unique long term management plan, balancing ecological and socio-economic factors, and Tony dealt in some detail with the plans developed or being developed for sites or 'cells' in our area.

Surveys have shown that we regard visits to the coast as important to our quality of life.

Working with others, the Trust's aim - through its Shifting Shores policy - is to ensure that future generations will also be able to experience the beauty and peace of the coast, although it may well look very different.

Dorset's pledge to children in care

A COUNCIL made up of young people have helped the county council revise its 27 point policy on children in care and care leavers.

A pledge of promises to children and young people in care has been signed by Dorset County Council promising to do its best to ensure the happiness, welfare and future opportunities of children in its care.

The Children in Care Council - known as 'Dorset Kidz: Stand Up Speak Up' - will be ensuring DCC honours its commitment to children in care and care leavers across the county.

Toni Coombs, DCC's cabinet member for children's services and chair of the corporate parenting panel, said: "Through no fault of their own, children in care have not had the family support that many of us take for granted.

"We become their parents and have a duty to make sure they have support and opportunities to achieve the most out of their lives.

"This pledge is our commitment to them and I'm delighted that young people in care helped us write it, as we know it focuses on what matters to them."

The county council produced its first pledge in 2007. The recently revised pledge includes: help children and young people have a secure and stable home; listen to the wishes and views of children and young people; help them stay in touch with friends and family where it is safe and give them all the support they need to make a success of moving from care into adult life.

The pledge has been sent to all children and young people in care, care leavers, social workers and other professionals, plus county councillors.

Don't forget your compost bins this winter!

WITH winter just around the corner Dorset County Council are reminding residents to continue using their compost bins during the colder months.

Robert Gould, Dorset County Council's cabinet member for the environment, said: "Home composting is easy to do all year round. Autumn is an excellent time of year as there is a great deal of nutrient-rich waste available - old bedding plants, grass cuttings, autumn leaves and prunings can all be composted.

"It is an inexpensive, natural process which is much better for the environment than sending uncooked kitchen and garden waste to landfill.

"It currently costs the county council around £70 for each tonne of waste sent to landfill and this is set to rise dramatically over the next few years."

Top tips to keep composting this autumn are:

- Use a lawnmower to pick leaves up: This shreds the leaves and helps the composting process;
- Help next year's plants grow by making use of this year's tired vegetation: Adding old bedding plants to your compost mix will help to capture all the nutrients and will give new plants a great start when you wake the garden back up in the spring.

For those that are not already home composting there has never been a better time to get started.

Dorset councils have teamed up with bin manufacturer Straight PLC to provide a range of compost bins, kitchen caddies and water butts at bargain prices.

For more information see www.dorset.getcomposting.com or call Straight PLC on 0844 5714444.

Six positives for a better life

1. Change the thought – Change the outcome: This is the starting point, reprogramming your brain by replacing an unhelpful negative thought or belief with a new positive one. Use your imagination to visualize or 'show' your brain what you want. The power of the mind cannot be over-estimated!

2. Find reasons to say "yes": "I would love to but..." here comes the negative reason why you can't! It can be a really positive experience to just say yes, if it is possible & what you want, then try to find ways that will allow you the opportunity, maybe you need others to persuade you, take control & decide for yourself!

3. Don't just do what you did last year: Repeating what you always do will bring you the same outcome unless others change & this is not in your control. So if you didn't like all that happened last year make plans & set new goals, do something different!

4. Deal with difficult decisions now, not later: "Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today" We all know this but positive action is required to make it happen. Prioritize & do the difficult tasks first in the day so you have a clear focus for the rest of the day making you less stressed & more productive!

5. Self-belief starts with you: This is an empowering way of taking more control in your life rather than relying on others to make you feel good. Do something fun or caring for yourself today!

6. Renegotiate: Stuck with what you have always had & now want a change? Look at learning to develop & use your assertive skills, ask for what you want, discuss your changing needs, expectations with yourself & others to reach the deal that works for you!

START LIVING

1. START TO PUT YOURSELF FIRST: If you eat & drink healthily, schedule regular physical activity that you enjoy & manage your time effectively, you'll be in a better position to help others

2. START TO MAKE TIME TO RELAX & MENATLLY UNWIND Relaxation, breathing & meditation exercises have been proven to be effective in reducing stress & anxiety, they are ideal ways to switch off AND they boost your immune system. Just a few minutes a day will pay huge dividends

STOP STRESSING

1. STOP IGNORING YOUR NEEDS: Know what is expected of you and what is reasonable. Take short breaks throughout the day & know when and how to say 'No' both at work & home

2. STOP GETTING DISTRACTED: If you're experiencing too much pressure or just have a lot going on in your life, staying focused isn't easy. It may help to ask for support from colleagues or friends & prioritise urgent, important & non-urgent tasks

3. START TO PRIORITISE TASKS: There are only so many things we can do well during each day, so choose your top 3 most urgent tasks each morning and make them your priority. Reschedule, renegotiate your commitments or delegate – you can make it happen!

4. START TO EMPATHISE WITH OTHERS: There are many different behaviour styles that affect how we communicate with each other. Be aware that different people can perceive your words & actions in a way you didn't always intend. Take time to listen to others & look for solutions.

3. STOP ALLOWING OTHERS TO MAKE YOU FEEL INFERIOR: The key to stress-free living is to accept yourself for exactly who you are today, including past mistakes and things you might not be so proud of. Work on your self-belief and confidence and just go for it!

4. STOP BEING JUDGMENTAL: Try to adopt a more flexible thinking style which will improve your mental well-being, whilst reducing unnecessary pressure for both you and those around you. Practice being objective and understanding.

Residents' concerns grow over West Bay road junction

RESIDENTS on a West Bay housing estate fear that someone will have to be killed before safety measures are taken at the junction leading to their homes.

At Bridport Town Council's highways and transportation sub-committee last week, councillors once again supported a request for a convex mirror at the entrance to the Wanderwell housing estate on West Bay Road.

Nick Gregory has lived at Wanderwell for six years. Mr Gregory led a petition three years ago asking for safety measures at the junction.

"As soon as we moved in here we found a problem getting in and out. At the weekends the traffic was continuous," he said.

"When you try to turn right traffic comes round that bend at a minimum of 30mph, some doing even 70mph. We haven't a chance of getting out because of the speed of the traffic.

"Most people in Wanderwell are elderly and their judgement is slower. How no one here has not been killed I'll never know.

"We were so frightened we had a new back entrance made because we kept on trying to get things done and nothing was happening, but we are the only ones in Wanderwell who have enough land and an access to do that."

Phillippa King has lived at Wanderwell for eight years. She said: "I think they are just waiting for someone to get badly injured or killed."

"There have been a couple of little accidents but nothing too serious yet but its because we are all so very careful."

"There is a sign up there which says there is a junction but its on a corner and people don't realise that we can't see round it. It would be great to have a mirror it really would."

A Dorset County Council spokesman said: "It was previously decided not to place a mirror at the junction.

"Mirrors have inherent problems in that they can be vandalised, get steamed up and it is difficult to gauge the speed of vehicles. There are signs on West Bay Road, including 'slow' signs with bar markings approaching from The Crown roundabout and a 'side road ahead' sign.

"There have been no recorded personal injury collisions at this junction in the last three years and it would be difficult to justify additional measures.

"We would not put speed bumps on a main road as it would cause problems for the emergency services and noise for residents. We would only use a 20mph limit in town centres, outside schools or in a residential area where there is a collision problem. However, we would listen to any requests and visit the site to investigate."

Support Everyman and The Prostate Cancer Charity this Movember

MEN with moustaches will become a familiar site across the world this month and the View From offices will be no exception.

Thousands worldwide will be joining the "Movember" campaign, which challenges men to grow moustaches to help raise money for the fight against Prostate Cancer.

Rules behind Movember strictly forbid any beards and participants are not allowed to shave their upper lips until December.

The team at the View From had their last shave on Sunday and will now compete to grow the most manly moustache.

If you would like to sponsor the View from team then visit www.movember.com and follow the links to donate to team "View From".

Alternatively sponsorship can be handed in at the office Lyme Regis.

If you have any pictures of your Movember team then send them to tom@pemedia.co.uk

THE plants will not be the only thing growing at Groves Nursery this month as male staff joined the Movember campaign.

One particularly brave participant and familiar face around Bridport, Cyril Whitlock (pictured back row, centre) has agreed to shave off his moustache to comply with the rules in order to grow it again.

Cyril has had his moustache for 38 years and not even his wife has seen him without one.

You can follow the progress of the Groves moustache growing team via the Groves Nurseries website.

Manager of Groves Nurseries, Charlie Groves said: "It is a little known fact that one person dies every hour in the UK from prostate cancer, so it's great that so many of our staff are keen to take part in this event.

"The team at Groves have always been up for fancy dress in the past to raise money for charity but this is going one stage further as we can't take our moustaches off when not at work."

There will be collection pots at the till points at Groves, or go to www.grovesnurseries.co.uk to donate online.

The Poppy Appeal 2010

Lest we forget... Wear your poppy!

Why the Legion is Mark's personal favourite charity

GUNNER Mark Stonelake, of 29 Commando Regiment, Royal Artillery, had his left leg amputated in December 2008 in Afghanistan, when the vehicle he was driving hit a roadside bomb.

As well as losing a leg, the blast also left him with a badly damaged right foot, fractured back, broken bones in both legs and broken nose, jaw and teeth.

A friend and colleague also in the vehicle at the time has been left permanently brain-damaged by the incident, and has to communicate through a computer.

Mark is still serving in the British Armed Forces, along with his fiancée Donna Canty, an Able Seaman in the Royal Navy.

He is one of the first wounded soldiers to have benefited from the Battle Back programme whilst receiving treatment at Headley Court, after he took to the skies in a glider whilst still recovering from the IED blast.

■ MARK Stonelake as he appears in this year's poster campaign to encourage people to support the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal.

The Royal British Legion has committed the funding to build, equip and operate the Battle Back Challenge Centre (BBCC) and Personnel Recovery Centres (PRCs), part of the MoD's Personnel Recovery Capability, which will be designed for rehabilitating injured Service personnel through the medium of sports and adventurous training.

Mark recently took part in the Sail4Heroes fundraiser, sailing from Plymouth to London, in order to raise money for the Royal British Legion and is also a member of the Legion.

The Legion is funding necessary home adaptations to Mark's home, in order to make it easier for him to carry out essential everyday activities. Adaptations will include building an extension to the house to have a wet room.

"The Royal British Legion is my personal favourite charity, and the people at the Legion down in Devon are helping me while I'm in the Army, but I know that help will continue, should myself or my family need it if I leave the Army," he says.

Mark appears in the Legion's 2010 Poppy Appeal poster campaign and TV commercial. He lives in Devon with his fiancée Donna and their nine month old daughter, Grace.

... for your well-being

In my work I help people to develop an understanding of their own well being, which is fundamental to our overall health. By strengthening this mind/body connection you can relieve stress, strengthen your body's ability to stay well, and experience more joy in life.

I have practiced yoga for most of my life and been a yoga teacher for many years. I also trained in Aromatherapy, Body Massage and Beauty Treatments, and ran my own salons in Hampshire. My new treatment room is set in a beautiful location, under Lambert's Castle with stunning views over the Marshwood Vale. The peace and tranquillity here enhances the opportunity for you to de-stress and to relax, and so deepens the healing effects of the treatments.

'Lovegrove Essentials' is a range of hand-made natural skin and body care products, made locally for me from high-quality ingredients, free from chemical additives. I use these, as well as other high-quality brands to compliment the beauty treatments. So even something as simple as a manicure can enhance relaxation and deepen a client's sense of well-being.

The importance of color in Interior Design

ALTHOUGH there's no hard and fast science that says everyone will react in a certain way to a certain color, there is something very real about the psychology of color and no doubt that certain colors tend to elicit certain emotions, moods, and even physical feelings. Because of this impact choosing the right colors for your interior design scheme is about so much more than just which swatches and samples you think look pretty together.

Warm vs Cool

Colors are divided into two groups: warm and cool. Reds, yellows, and shades of orange are warm colors and are known to stimulate and excite, while blues, greens, and purples are cool colors because they have a relaxing and calming affect. In general warm colors work well in places where there should be activity and interaction, like the kitchen and living room, and cool colors are most appreciated in rooms where the aim is relaxation and calmness, like the bedroom and bathroom.

That's not to say you can't mix things up and put a relaxing color somewhere busy -- my mom has green in her living room and it's still the lively hub of the house, although I do find the walls relaxing to look at. Here are some basics about each of the major color groups:

Red is the most emotionally intense of all the colors and is known to raise the heart rate, increase blood pressure,

Green is similar to blue but more versatile. It does not suppress appetite (perhaps because so many foods in nature are green) and in its lighter shades can be both cheerful and relaxing.

Yellow speeds the metabolism, enhances concentration, and inspires optimism and happiness. If over-used, however, it can become too stimulating and can instead lead people to become tense and crabby.

Blue One of the most popular "favorite" colors, blue has the opposite effect of red: it calms, relaxes, inspires tranquility, and suppresses appetite. The downside of blue is that it can come off as cold or depressing. Blue is often used in bedrooms and studies.

Green is similar to blue but more versatile. It does not suppress appetite than adults. White is bright, fresh, and neutral so it goes with everything. White enhances natural light and makes things appear clean. Too much white, however, can become stark and sterile.

Brown is earthy, warm, and calming. It implies feelings of thickness and strength and pairs well with most other colors.

MAKING your own cushions is a fantastic way to recycle old materials for a new, functional purpose. If you need replacement cushions, or are thinking up a new interior design scheme, why not opt for making your own bespoke cushions?

Getting Started

If you want to learn to make your own cushions, a simple square cushion is the easiest way to get started. But just because it's simple doesn't mean it can't be beautiful. You have design choices even with square cushions. You cushion can be enhanced with standard piping, ruched trim, appliquéd designs, even tassels and fringing.

Foam for the inside of your cushion is available in a range of pre-measured sizes.

Cushion Making Instructions

Here are the steps to make your own cushions:

- 1.To make the cover, begin by measuring the foam pad. Add an inch to each measurement. This will give you a half-inch allowance on all sides.
- 2.Cut two pieces of fabric to these measurements. This will give you two identical square pieces of fabric.
- 3.Pin the two pieces of fabric together, making sure that the finished side of both pieces is facing in. In other words, you are assembling the cover "inside out."
- 4.Sew around three edges and all four corners, but leave one edge open.
- 5.Now, turn the fabric "right side out" and insert the foam.
- 6.Turn under the edges of the opening to match the other edges and slip-stitch (a slipstitch is a concealed stitch used for sewing folded edges).
- 7.Now you can add embellishments like piping or fringe if you wish. Other options include adding a zipper or leaving an opening so you can remove the cushion cover for cleaning.

Once you master this simple type of cushion, you can branch out into other designs and techniques.

Bienvenue and Welcome to No 6 French Restaurant!

No 6 in Dorchester, Dorset, is a contemporary restaurant with a convivial atmosphere. Located in North Square this is "the" place to be seen in Dorchester. Offering a great range of locally sourced produce, French Chef Christian Lohez and his wife Sylwia welcome you to their outstanding restaurant, which is already very popular with the locals.

No 6 is just a stone's throw away from the town centre - come along, sip an aperitif with some juicy, marinated olives. Order your Buckland Newton venison steak, Lyme Bay king scallops or the freshly delivered Gurnard and indulge yourself with an exceptional dessert. Even, if you are in for a short lunch, there is plenty on the menu to get your taste buds going.

Freshness is the key to the ethos of the house and this is put into action through the daily changing blackboard. The unpretentious cuisine offers a menu that is simple but flavoursome and can be accompanied by a selected house wine or from the wine menu. Fish, meat or seafood, there is enough to satisfy the palate of even the most discerning Dorset connoisseur, but not enough days in the week to try all the offers on the board.

For more information please visit www.no6-restaurant.co.uk or call Christian and Sylwia on 01305 267679.

Looking good this Christmas

With the summer holidays out of the way, and the kids safely back in school many people's thoughts are already turning to Christmas and very soon you will start to receive the inevitable invitations to work parties, dances and social events.

With the party season in the not too distant future, and Christmas just 8 weeks away, it is never too early to start thinking about how you can lose weight before the festive period.

So you may be asking 'what hope do I have in reaching a healthier weight before Christmas after I've splurged whilst on holiday and over the summer months? And, what's more, if I do lose weight, how will I maintain it over the festive season?'

The answer lies in starting your weight-loss journey now, setting goals and rewards that will spur you on to your main goal - your ideal weight, and a healthier life.

Many overweight people dread the end of year parties and wearing shapeless clothes in order to cover up, but by taking action and doing something about your weight problem now you needn't stress about how you are going to look at this year's festive get-togethers.

Instead you can look forward to wearing a new little black dress or snappy suit and imagine just how shocked your family and friends will be when they see the new slim and healthy you, especially the ones that haven't seen you since last Christmas.

Celia Manville & Maggie Duarte are counsellors for LighterLife, a weight-loss and weight-management programme designed for adults with one or more stone to lose. ## The Fireplace - Still the heart of your home

As a crucial source of heat in your home, and with a huge range of styles to choose from, fires and fireplaces are once again at the top of the list of desirable features. A fireplace puts heart into a house, and flickering fire-light provides a delightful ambience and a real focal point for your room.

Although traditionally constructed of heavy permanent materials, fireplaces needn't be forever. A carefully chosen fireplace provides a dramatic facelift; its installation possibly taking no more than a day or two, and the total cost is worth every penny when you see the end result!

There are two main aspects to consider. The style and appearance of the fireplace itself and the fuel it will use. Fuel may be the traditional 'solid fuel', or perhaps you find gas or electricity more convenient. There is a vast choice of materials from which a new fireplace can be made. So put the heart back in your home - take a look at the wide range of ideas at Casterbridge Fires Ltd - from stoves to open fires, from wood to marble, from plain to fancy.

Literary Festival has plenty more to offer

WITH sell-out shows already under its belt, Bridport Literary Festival still has plenty more to offer with Marilyn Monroe, online religion, fish, sisters and Tolstoy all up for discussion.

Thursday brings us Sadie Jones and Melissa Jones at 11am, sisters who have both taken a literary career route and proved very successful. Hugh Warwick will be talking about our favourite prickly friends - the quintessential hedgehog at 2.30pm. In the evening, a moral debate: is there a relevant place for religion in our modern age of high technology? Charles Foster and Peter Owen-Jones will be in conversation at 6.30pm at the Arts Centre.

Luke Jennings, the Observer newspaper's dance critic, will be reminiscing about a youth spending wandering through streams and rivers in search of the perfect catch at 11am on Friday, November 5th. His new book, Blood Knots tell a tale of friends, fathers and fishing. At 2.30pm Anthony Sattin will be taking a trip down the Nile, accompanied by Florence Nightingale. Salley Vickers will be talking all things love: love given, love withheld, love craved and love lost. One of the nation's favourite fiction writers, she'll be talking about the very thing that makes us human.

For the budding young readers, Angie Sage will be taking about her internationally acclaimed series Septimus Heap at 11am on Saturday, November 6th - books about an apprentice wizard who possesses some rather special power. The novels are soon to be made into films so it's the perfect chance to meet the author of The Next Big Thing in young people's novels. Jane Rusbridge, winner of a Bridport Prize and author of this year's Big Read, will be in conversation at 11am with Tom Connolly about writing and publishing their debut novels. Jane will also be hosting a writing workshop in the afternoon, spaces still available. Daisy Goodwin has released her latest novel with a local twist for Dorset - the story of an American heiress brought to Lulworth Castle to marry an eligible bachelor, she'll be talking about it at 2.30pm.

Movie icon Marilyn Monroe had a life that could only happen in Hollywood and had it all played out in the tabloids. As part of the festival, Andrew O'Hagan will be talking about Marilyn's story, but with a twist. In November 1960 Frank Sinatra gave her a dog called Maf, and Maf the dog became a star in his own right. Marilyn died in 1962 and Maf was by her side throughout the last two years of her life. Andrew O'Hagan chronicles the time shared by the star and her devoted pooch, bringing a unique look at a life you might think you know. The talk takes place at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, November 6th at 4pm and tickets cost £8. Following the talk, there will be a screening introduced by O'Hagan of 'The Misfits' - a film directed by John Huston and a script by Monroe's husband Arthur Miller, which won great critical acclaim and proved to be the last film Marilyn made.

The festival comes to a rousing finish on Sunday with Howard Davies asking the big question - who is to blame for the financial crisis? The talk has already sold out, as has Rosamund Bartlett who will be revealing fascinating facts about Tolstoy, based on material only unearthed since the end of the Soviet Regime.

There is something for everyone at this year's Literary Festival - a chance to celebrate the internationally renowned Bridport Prize and the world of Literature in our wonderful town.

All eras of ZZ Top are included in the same show, in two very individual sets. Nik Ryan (Billy Biggins) portrays the legendary front man, Billy Gibbons, in his looks and his playing, incorporating superb tone, style and feel with a sense of humour as he rocks his way through the show, getting the crowd on their feet as well as tearin' it up!

Meanwhile, the hillbilly cowboy antics of Dusty Hill on bass guitar are faithfully reproduced by Col Gray who nails the sound and unique vocal style of 'The Dust' whilst holdin' down the lowdown and turning every venue into one hell of a house party!

The Lil' Ol' Band From Devon tour will see the band performing in theatres, art centres, festivals and established rock venues in the UK and Europe, giving fans of all ages and backgrounds the opportunity to experience the bands entertaining, authentic and dynamic full on ZZ Top show.

Packing the classics like 'Gimme All your Lovin', 'Sharp Dressed Man', 'Legs', 'Tush', 'LaGrange', 'Rough Boy' and many more into a two hour plus rock extravaganza and throwing in a few surprises for hardcore (and not so hardcore) fans to savour!

As any ZZ fan will tell you, there is only one ZZ Top. And as any ZZ TOP fan will tell you, there is only one complete ZZ TOP show - and that's THE ZZ TOPS!

THE ZZ TOPS are: Nik Ryan (Rev Billy Biggins) - Vocals/Fuzzy Guitar, Col Gray (Dusty Thrills) - Vocals/Bass Guitar and Matt Jones (Franks Weird) - Drums.

Tickets for next Friday's show cost £11 in advance (available from the Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138) or £13 on the door. The bar opens at 7:30pm.

'Top' tribute act head to the Halls

ZZ TOPS is the unique three man tribute to rock music's best known Texan boogie band, and they're in Lyme next week (Friday, November 12th) to "tear the house down!"

There latest tour features more tone, taste and tenacity than ever before. The show comes complete with their real beards, the crazy guitars, all the moves and over two hours of hot rodded rock n' roll.

SEAN HUGHES FOR ELECTRIC COMEDY

NOVEMBER'S Electric Comedy show sees Perrier Award winner Sean Hughes come to the Electric Palace, Bridport.

Sean first burst on to the comedy scene winning comedy's highest accolade - The Perrier Award - at the time, Sean was the youngest ever winner of the award. Following this Sean became a household name with his very own show - 'Seans Show' and long running stint as team captain on Never Mind The Buzzcocks. With his trademark dark, explosive style and quick-fire audience banter, Sean Hughes makes an extremely welcome return to the Electric Palace with a headlining set full of his darkly brilliant, self-deprecating barbed wit.

Tickets for Sean Hughes on Thursday, November 25th cost £10.50 and are available from the box office on 01308 424901.

Electric Palace Awarded 'Special Price' for Met Opera Screening!

SINCE opening, the Electric Palace has worked hard to stay true to its ethos of a mixed programme of 'entertainment for all' to include something for everyone.

Their latest project of bringing the Met Opera Live to Bridport is a very brave piece of programming and shows a true loyalty to Bridport and its commitment to bring culture to places that so often get left out. Having the Met Opera in a rural location is pretty much unheard of as it is only usually city cinemas that benefit.

However, the Palace has felt uneasy that the standard ticket price of £22.50 has prevented some people from attending and have contacted the Met Opera in New York to request a 'special price' for this season to enable more local people to attend and enjoy some marvellous productions.

The Electric Palace are delighted to announce that the Met Opera have kindly agreed to their 'Special Price' request of Standard Tickets for just £14.50 (saving of £8.00) Member Ticket for just £12.50 (saving of £6.00) and Premium Ticket to include a 2 course dinner for just £28.50 (saving of £8.00) under 25s remain the same at £10.00.

If you've never seen opera before then now is your chance! Don't be shy - take advantage of having the finest opera in the world at your local cinema with Donizetti's Don Pasquale, Verdi's Don Carlo and Puccini's La Fanciulla del West all included in the new season.

Tickets on sale now from Bridport Tourist Info Centre on 01308 424901 for full season listings see the Electric Palace website www.electricpalace.org.uk

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

FROM her Calendar of Sonnets (published in America in 1886) this is Helen Jackson's verse for November.

NOVEMBER

*This is the treacherous month when autumn days
With summer's voice come bearing summer's gifts.*

*Beguiled, the pale down-trodden aster lifts
Her head and blooms again. The soft, warm haze
Makes moist once more the sere and dusty ways,
And, creeping through where dead leaves lie
in drifts,*

*The violet returns. Snow noiseless sifts
Ere night, an icy shroud, which morning's rays
Will idly shine upon and slowly melt,
Too late to bid the violet live again.*

*The treachery, at last, too late, is plain;
Bare are the places where the sweet flowers dwelt.
What joy sufficient hath November felt?
What profit from the violet's day of pain?*

AS we approach the 92nd anniversary of Armistice Day it is an appropriate time to have a poem written by a soldier. Some time ago I visited a regimental website and found these comments: "It's the Military, not the reporter who has given us the freedom of the Press. It's the Military, not the poet who has given us the freedom of speech. It's the Military, not the politicians that ensures our right to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. It's the Military, that salutes the flag, that serves beneath it, whose coffins are draped by it." On the same website was this poem, written by an unknown soldier.

THE FINAL INSPECTION

*The soldier stood and faced his God,
Which must always come to pass.
He hoped his shoes were shining,
Just as brightly as his brass.*

*'Step forward now, you soldier,
How shall I deal with you?*

*Have you always turned the other cheek?
To My Church have you been true?*

*The soldier squared his shoulders and said,
'No, Lord, I guess I ain't
Because those of us who carry guns,
Can't always be a saint.'*

*I've had to work most Sundays,
And at times my talk was tough.
And sometimes I've been violent,
Because the world is awful rough.*

*But, I never took a penny,
That wasn't mine to keep...
Though I worked a lot of overtime,
When the bills got just too steep.*

*And I never passed a cry for help,
Though at times I shook with fear.*

*And sometimes, God, forgive me,
I've wept unmanly tears.*

*I know I don't deserve a place,
Among the people here.
They never wanted me around,
Except to calm their fears.*

*If you've a place for me here, Lord,
It needn't be so grand.
I never expected or had too much,
But if you don't, I'll understand.*

*There was a silence all around the throne,
Where the saints had often trod.
As the soldier waited quietly,
For the judgment of his God.*

*'Step forward now, you soldier,
You've borne your burdens well.
Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets;
You've done your time in Hell.'*

A song 'To Help Them'

Local band Wise Intentions release charity single

A BAND of teenage brothers are proving they have noble intentions after releasing a charity single they wrote, recorded and released themselves.

Under the moniker of Wise Intentions the three siblings are hoping to raise funds and the profile of charity Shelterbox by donating all the profits from their specially written single.

Brothers Robert, Reece and Tommy James have been playing the east Devon circuit for the past 18 months under their professional names Scott, Grant and Blake Valor.

The single "To Help Them" has been officially recognised by Shelterbox and is available from iTunes and Amazon to download for 79p.

Drummer Blake, 17, who only started playing when his brothers needed another musician, said: "The thing about shelterbox is they are really quick and proactive in helping people anywhere around the world."

"They don't really promote themselves as much as others and are self sufficient so rely on donations, so without people's supporting them with donations they cannot do what they do."

Keyboardist and Former Woodroffe student Grant, 18, added: "We knew people who were in Malaysia during the tsunami in 2004 and there was a time when we didn't know if they were alright, so I suppose that was in the back of our minds, when we thought of Shelterbox because they helped so much during that disaster."

"With them not being so well known we thought we could help promote them."

Guitarist and lead singer Scott, 15, began writing the lyrics to the song, to help raise people's awareness.

The Woodroffe pupil said: "The thing with the song I like is the fact it seems to relate so well to Shelterbox and their work during natural disasters, which puts more meaning behind the song."

"When you see natural disasters a lot of the time you are seeing it from a distance, so hopefully this song will make you think about it a bit more about what's going on."

The band, who have already written 70 songs, will be playing live at Ilminster's Crown Inn on November 26th.

For more information on the band visit www.wiseintentions.com.

INBETWEENERS STARS IN NEW WAR SITCOM

ALAN PARTRIDGE RETURNS | Alan Partridge is returning with a new show - and Billie Piper finds herself at the wrong end of one of the radio host's quips.

The gaffe-prone DJ, played by Steve Coogan, stars in a one-off online series showing his antics on his new radio show Mid Morning Matters.

In the first of 12 11-minute episodes, Alan - who is assisted by younger DJ Simon (played by comedian Tim Key), with whom he claims to have "great banter" - tells his North Norfolk Digital listeners: "I like her face. She has a very round cherubic face, rather like a Victorian doll that's somehow been re-animated."

"Say what you like about Billie Piper - but she is the most popular prostitute on ITV."

In another episode, Alan hosts a phone-in to find the greatest ever person from Norfolk, with Horatio Nelson challenged by Delia Smith.

Other episodes include Alan confronting an Alan Partridge imposter on Twitter, and in another, Alan - who is waiting for guest Anthea Turner - meets a man campaigning to reduce childhood obesity through cycling.

The shows - written by original creator Armando Iannucci - will appear on www.fostersfunny.co.uk from Friday, November 5th.

AHA! | Steve Coogan's Alan Partridge returns for an online special

INBETWEENERS STARS 'CHICKENS' | Two of the stars of cult comedy The Inbetweeners are to appear in a new sitcom set during World War One.

Simon Bird and Joe Thomas have co-written and will star in Chickens on Channel 4 along with Jonny Sweet.

They will play three young men who are left behind while their contemporaries are fighting on the Western Front.

The trio are branded cowards as they struggle to impress the women left on the home front.

Bird, who plays straight-laced Will in The Inbetweeners, said: "We're really excited to be working with Channel 4 on our first sitcom. It's a dream come true for us and we can't wait to get started."

DERMOT'S POKERFACE | Dermot O'Leary has admitted he finds it difficult keeping straight-faced when he's backstage watching X Factor auditions.

The presenter looks on at the auditions with the contestant's family and friends, who are often oblivious to the lack of talent on stage.

Speaking on Thursday night's episode of A League Of Their Own on Sky 1, Dermot said: "(It's) really really awkward. The strangest thing is when you turn to the mum or dad as if to go 'what do you think?' because you can't really go 'they're rubbish'."

"So you turn to the mum and dad and say 'so what do you think?' and then they say 'they are brilliant! You've just got to keep the poker face'."

He went on: "The show only works if you abide by anyone can win it. The lovely thing is every now and then you get a shock as someone who looks a bit strange comes on but has the voice of an angel ... a SuBo moment."

Weymouth Choral Society concert

WEYMOUTH Choral society and Wessex Sinfonia come together for a concert performing St John Passion by J S Bach on Saturday, November 5th in Holy Trinity Church, Weymouth at 7.30 pm. Joining Weymouth Choral and the Wessex Sinfonia are soloists; Jonathan Grey (Tenor -The Evangelist), Abbi Temple (Soprano), Jane Stevenson (Alto), Brian Parsons (Tenor), Roger Hewetson (Bass) and Tim Nelson (Bass)

This tremendous work explores the dramatic potential of the story of Christ's betrayal, arrest, trial and crucifixion. Bach uses the narrative of the Evangelist's recitative to unfold the story, which is punctuated by interjections from other characters and the use of the chorus to represent the yelling of the mob! There is also an element of reflection, with the use of chorales (harmonized Lutheran hymn tunes) from the chorus, providing moments to pause and consider the meaning of the dramatic events as they unfold. With the musical intricacies of the solo arias entwined throughout the work, Bach presents strikingly contrasting styles of writing which collectively form a true masterpiece.

Tickets are £8 (free to under 16s) and are available at Weymouth TIC, on the door or phone 01305 775644, via email: weymouthchoral@btinternet.com or visit the website: www.weymouthchoralsociety.org.uk.

LAUGHS BY THE MILE IN DUE DATE

FROM director Todd Phillips, Due Date<sup>15</sup> stars Robert Downey Jr. and Zach Galifianakis as two unlikely companions who are thrown together on a road trip that turns out to be as life-changing as it is outrageous.

Downey plays Peter Highman, an expectant first-time father whose wife's due date is a mere five days away. As Peter hurries to catch a flight home from Atlanta to be at her side for the birth, his best intentions go completely awry when a chance encounter with aspiring actor Ethan Tremblay (Galifianakis) forces Peter to hitch a ride with Ethan—on what turns out to be a cross-country road trip that will ultimately destroy several cars, numerous friendships and Peter's last nerve.

ROAD TRIP FROM HELL
Robert Downey Jr and Zach Galifianakis in Due Date

JOHNNY Knoxville and co are back for the third big-screen installment of the Jackass series, Jackass 3D<sup>18</sup>.

As with the two previous films, and television series, the film sees Knoxville, along with regulars including Bam Margera, Steve-O, Ryan Dunn and more, partake in usually dangerous, often disgusting, and always ridiculous, don't-try-his-at-home stunts.

Cameos include BMX star Mat Hoffman, skateboarding legend Tony Hawk and actor Seann William Scott.

MATT Reeves' horror Let Me In<sup>15</sup> sees Chloe Moretz (Hit Girl in Kick-Ass) star as Abby, a mysterious 12-year-old who moves next door to Owen (Kodi Smit-McPhee, The Road), a social outcast who is viciously bullied at school. In his loneliness Owen forms a profound bond with his new neighbour, but he can't help noticing that Abby is like no one he has ever met before. As a string of grisly murders grups his wintry New Mexico town, Owen has to confront the reality that his seemingly innocent friend is actually a savage vampire.

EVERY year companies throughout the area start wondering what they should do for Christmas. Well this year the decision has been made easier. The owners of the Fairwater Head Hotel, Carrie and Adam Southwell, have put together a very special Christmas package for companies who want to treat their staff to a really great Christmas Party.

It doesn't matter how large your group the Party Package covers the full Christmas works: atmosphere, ambience, celebrations and traditional Christmas fayre. The Fairwater Head Hotel will ensure you have a great party with locally sourced fresh ingredients and a jovial atmosphere.

The menu includes a choice of starters including a Scallop and Prawn Soufflé, Oven Baked Brie or a Roast Vegetable Terrine, while the main course includes a choice of a Traditional Roast Turkey with all the trimmings, Roasted Pheasant, Organic Salmon or a Homemade Nut Roast. Puddings are something else with a selection including a Traditional Christmas Pudding, Winter Berry Soup with a floating Meringue, Truffles or Cheese and Biscuits. This is followed by Homemade Mince Pies.

There's a choice of lunchtimes or evenings with music and dancing included each evening. Costs are from just £24.50 a head but you will need to hurry as dates are filling fast. Just call the hotel for available dates and costs.

Spot the difference.

Actually there is no difference in the pictures of our beautiful town, but frank property is different to other agents.

Mindful of the increasing demands we all face on our time frank is the only agent in Seaton that is open 7 days a week. We are also available out of hours for appointments and accompanied viewings. We tailor the service to meet your needs, isn't that how it should be?

DSA to stop publishing questions used in theory tests

THE Driving Standards Agency is to stop publishing the multiple choice questions and answers used in theory tests, Road Safety Minister Mike Penning announced today.

This will help to ensure that new drivers learn the principles behind driving theory rather than just learning answers.

The move follows the introduction of independent driving into the driving test and the DSA's decision to stop publishing test routes in October 2010, to make sure the test assesses a learner's ability to drive and not their capacity to memorise routes.

Mike Penning said:

"The driving theory test should help to prepare drivers for real life on the road - good driving is not just about vehicle-handling skills, but also about having the knowledge and understanding of safe driving theory.

"No longer publishing these questions and answers will mean that successful candidates will have to understand the theory rather than simply memorising answers.

"I believe that this - along with the other changes we are making to the driving test regime - will lead to better drivers and safer roads."

In September 2011 DSA will change the format of books and other learning materials available to help people prepare for theory tests. This will take place at the same time as more challenging case studies are introduced to car and motorcycle theory tests.

Then, from 1 January 2012, DSA will create theory tests using questions which will not be published.

Practice questions and answers, not used in the theory tests, will still be available to help candidates with revision.

Other companies which publish products containing DSA theory test questions will also no longer have access to the questions used in the tests.

Goal crazy Netherbury hit Colts for seven

PREMIER

Farway Utd 1 Lyme Regis 4

A second-half super show from the Seasiders left hosts Farway United with just a last minute penalty from substitute Andy Diamond to show for their efforts.

A scrappy first-half, punctuated by more fouls than clear-cut scoring opportunities, had 0-0 written all over it until Rob Thomson unleashed a ferocious 25-yard drive that flashed past keeper Phil Woodley and high into the net.

Earlier, both teams had been guilty of squandering penalty kicks. First Joel Gostling saw his kick saved by Woodley and he himself had been hauled down. Then Lyme glove-man Ashley Caddy did well to keep out Ben Williams' 12-yard effort.

The second-half was a totally different affair with Lyme playing some of their best football of the season. Gostling, who had a fine game bristling with attacking verve after the restart, atoned for his earlier miss by jinking past three players and stabbing the ball home in the 52nd minute. A minute later the same player was only denied by an upright as the visitors took control.

Farway did respond briefly and a goalmouth scramble resulted in the Lyme defence lashing the ball clear from under their own crossbar.

But it was a brief respite for the Devonians who were in danger of crumbling under the attacking onslaught. Gostling was again denied – this time by a fine save by Woodley – and Dave Robinson crashed a 20-yarder against the crossbar soon after.

Seasiders' manager Robin Townsend rang the changes on the hour with Julien Simier replacing Joe Bond – and within a minute the Frenchmen had found the net, tapping in from close range after Woodley had parried another effort from Gostling.

Simier made it 4-0 in the 76th minute with a delicate chip from wide on the left to move into double figures for the season and give a perfect response to his manager who decided to leave his top-scorer stewing on the bench – but certainly got the desired response.

Merritt Rovers 7 Barrington 3

STRIKER Scott Jennings took his season's tally to 14 with a double as Merritt cruised to victory over a Barrington side now without a win in five.

Rovers led 2-0 at the interval but goals from Tom Perry, Guy Dare and Rob Luxton saw Barrington battle back to lead.

At 3-3 the game swung on referee Simon Salter's decision to award Steve Burke a second yellow card the hosts used the numerical advantage to cruise home.

Pete Symes and Jack Jennings also netted twice for Rovers and there was a single from Haydn Smith.

Perry Street 2 Combe Res 1

GOALS from Chris Wray (pen) and Ben Stevens saw Perry Street come from behind to beat visiting Combe Reserves and secure their first win in eight league games.

South Petherton 9 Misterton 1

SOUTH Petherton manager Gordy Childs felt his charges left last week's opponents Merritt off the hook by only winning 3-0. There was no repeat on Saturday as Peth crushed Misterton at Lightgate Lane.

The hosts took an early lead but Misterton were soon level when Craig Studley netted from the penalty spot. But Childs' team, with striker Jodie Bovey back after a 10-week suspension, moved up through the gears and scored at regular intervals to extend their unbeaten league record to 14 games.

Man-of-the-Match Jon Hayter bagged a hat-trick with Marcus Alexander (2), Danny Rendall (2), Lee Richards and Leigh Bailey also on target.

DIVISION ONE

Charmouth 2 Crewkerne Town 5

The forecast goal-rush at Barrs Lane didn't materialise as Charmouth put in a plucky showing to restrict the free-scoring Crewkerne front line.

Indeed the Robins were all square at 2-2 with goals from Adam Cody-Boutcher and Dan Rendall with 15 minutes remaining and a share of the spoils looking likely. But the visitors struck three times late on and Charmouth's winless run continues. "We appeared to lack some fitness late-on and were punished" said Charmouth assistant manager Nick Pomeroy.

Ilminster Colts 2 Netherbury 7

HIT-MAN Tim Hussey took his recent tally to 12 goals in five appearances with four in the hammering of Ilminster Colts.

As a whole the Ambers front line have now plundered four or more goals in each of their last six matches.

Phil Hussey opened proceedings on Saturday and brother Tim doubled the lead before a slump midway through the first-half allowed the hosts to strike twice to level. But Tim Hussey scored again five minutes before the break and the second 45 was one-way traffic, "We were faultless" said Netherbury manager Andy Loudon.

Aaron Marshall slid in at the far post to make it 4-2 soon after the restart and Ryan Gay added number five with what Loudon described as a "cheeky flick".

TOP SCORER | Tim Hussey scored four of Netherbury's seven in the rout Ilminster Colts.

STAR MAN | Joel Gostling scored and was in fine form as Lyme Regis won 4-1 at Farway United.

HAT-TRICK | Dan Pyett scored all three as Beaminster Res edged out plucky Uplyme 3-2.

Luso-Chard 5 Millwey Rise 1

THE league's top scorer Marco Quedas took his tally to 16 with two more as Millwey Res were brushed aside at Forton.

Lyme Bantams 2 Misterton Res 3

LYME Bantams' manager Neil MacKenzie was bitterly disappointed to see his team end up empty-handed and testing the Misterton Reserves 100 per cent record to the limit at Venlake.

"I have to say I can't believe we were denied a point when Jamie Jones headed home a late equaliser only for the referee to rule it for a foul. It didn't look like a foul to me, but we do seem to be on the wrong end of some of these decisions."

Rob MacKenzie had earlier put Lyme ahead only for the visitors to square things up before the break.

Ben Morgan was then guilty of having a penalty saved and Missy capitalized by scrambling the ball home to take the lead.

Teenage striker Jack Durrant notched the Seasiders' second but with Jones' 11th-hour strike ruled out, a late header gave Misterton all three points.

DIVISION FOUR

Thorncombe Res 1 Hawkchurch Res 4

A DOUBLE from youngster Jack Larcombe helped Hawkchurch Reserves to victory in the local-derby at Horseshoe Lane. Ben McCafferey and Dave Male scored the Hawks' others.

DIVISION TWO

Beaminster 3 Uplyme 2

BOTH camps felt Uplyme were hard done by not to have taken something from their trip to the Memorial Ground. "They gave it a real go" said Beaminster boss Robin Ormsby.

The hosts took the lead through the lightning quick Dan Pyett but Uplyme top scorer Alex Cottle struck back soon after. Pyett restored the lead but The Swallows were level again through Adam Neale.

The winner came before the interval when Pyett crowned a fine display with his third to move up to 10 for the season.

The visitors almost grabbed a point in the second-half but Paul Sampson's 25-yard shot struck both posts before being hacked clear.

Ormsby picked out goalkeeper Mark Tozer as one of his other top performers whilst Uplyme joint manager Roger Smart felt his whole line-up were worthy of a mention in what he described as: "An outstanding team performance."

Hawkchurch 4 Pymore 1

A 10-MAN move rounded-off by Dan Morley was the highlight Hawkchurch ended a trot of three defeats with victory over visiting Pymore. "It was one of the best goals I've seen at this level" said Hawkchurch manager Nigel Harding.

Morley's strike added to Glenn Hardings' opener to put the Hawk's in control. Pymore missed the chance to get back into the game when Leigh Dowle blazed over the bar.

Harding netted his second after the restart before Leo Maguire, on debut after leaving Axminster Town, came off the bench to make it 4-0. Alex Goodrick's fourth of the season counted for little with Pymore player-manager Matt Tither once again bemoaning his side's failure to take chances created.

LATE MOSS MAGIC LIFTS MAGPIES

STAINES 1 DORCHESTER TOWN 2

Blue Square South - Att: 296

RYAN Moss continued his excellent run of good form by notching the winner in added time to complete a hat-trick of Blue Square Bet South victories for Dorchester Town and lift them up to 14th place.

It is almost two years since the Magpies won three league games on the spin and means they have now taken 13 points from their last five matches.

After a goalless first-half, Danny Ings gave them the lead on 56 minutes, but it looked like the county town would have to settle for a point until Moss picked up a ball out of defence to beat his marker and fire past the advancing Louis Wells.

Manager Ashley Vickers was forced into one change with Gary Bowles replacing Scott Guyett in the centre of defence following the former Yeovil Town player's sudden exit from The Avenue to take up a job at Crystal Palace.

Danny Ings fired into the side netting in the sixth minute after cutting in from the right before Moss had a wonderful opportunity to put the Magpies ahead on 18 minutes when he charged down Wells' attempted clearance but then failed to put the ball in a virtually unguarded net.

Wells was kept busy as he had to turn Steve Devlin's 20 yard free-kick around the post before Jamie Gleeson blasted the ball over the top after neatly bringing the ball under control.

Both sides had appeals for penalties turned down, but the first-half closed scoreless.

The Swans chances were few and far between but Leroy Griffiths had a chance five minutes after the break but completely miscued his shot.

Moss' acceptance to continually chase balls down paid dividends eleven minutes after the break when Wells made a hash of an attempted clearance.

Moss caught the ball before it crossed the byeline and rolled it across the face of the goal for Ings to tap home and give Dorchester the lead.

It was an error in the Magpies defence that gave Staines their equaliser soon after when Nathan Walker misjudged the speed of the ball played beyond him by Griffiths, allowing Andre Scarlett to nip between him and keeper Simon Evans to score.

Such was Dorchester's dominance that Evans' only duty of the afternoon was to pick the ball out of the net.

Moss' late winner was no more than Dorchester deserved and they now have a chance to climb to midtable respectability if they can beat Bishop's Stortford, who are immediately below the Magpies in the table and visit The Avenue on Saturday.

◆ The Magpies have been drawn away to West-super-Mare in the 3rd qualifying round of the FA Trophy. The tie is scheduled to take place

Triple trouble for Terras

BASLEY 5 WEYMOUTH 2

Red Insure League Cup

A QUICKFIRE first-half trio of goals effectively ended Weymouth's hopes of a lengthy run in the Red Insure League Cup at Basley on Wednesday evening.

Things started well for the visitors with stand-in skipper Warren Byerley heading home Sam Charles' pinpoint cross for a 14th minute opener.

But the game was turned on its head by a decisive 10 minute spell either side of the half-hour.

Dominic Allen leveled for the hosts at the second attempt after his first effort had been parried by Ashley Weeks in the Weymouth goal.

Allen added a second soon after and debutant Joe Collins made it 3-1 in the 35th minute.

Tom Hill put the game beyond the Terras on the hour and only a fine finger-tip save from Weeks prevented him a second with a long-range piledriver.

Substitute Eddy Mitchell reduced the arrears with a fine chip in the 88th minute only for Dave Allen to have the final say five minutes from time.

Legg up for Bees

Shrewton United 0 Bridport 1

Toolstation Division One - Att: 47

RUSSELL Legg's second-half goal earned Bridport three valuable and deserved points at promotion rivals Shrewton United that kept them handily placed in the Toolstation Western League First Division title race.

Legg who was given his chance to re-establish a permanent starting place in Trevor Senior's side in Jamie Symes' absence, took the opportunity with a solid display culminating in the winning goal 15 minutes from the end.

He broke through the home defence and beat two defenders before firing his shot past keeper Chris Brewer into the corner of the net.

Bridport could and should have won by more, and indeed could have scored twice in the first minute through Chris Clarke.

In the opening seconds he produced a right footed snap shot from 10 yards that brought a superb reaction save from Brewer who plucked the ball out of the air, before firing over the top seconds later with a left foot shot.

Bridport had by far the better of the first half and coped well on a fairly uneven surface at the Recreation Ground, and created more chances which unfortunately were off target, whilst Shrewton's best effort was a shot that hit the side netting.

The host's came into it more in the second period, but it was Bridport who threatened most with Ryan Dovell unlucky not to score after rounding the keeper, but his shot from an acute angle was cleared off the line.

Minutes later Adam Symes broke through, but his lobbed effort not only cleared Brewer but also the bar.

Gary Bulman who had been drafted into the side when Darren Watts withdrew with a trapped nerve in his back was unlucky to be red carded along with Shrewton's Carl Jones who headed the Bees midfielder after Bulman had blocked his attempted clearance. Bulman put his hands up to defend himself when Jones went to repeat the feat, and referee Gibbons dismissed both.

After Legg's goal the Bees felt they also had a very good penalty shout turned down when Clarkes driven cross from the left hit a defenders hand, but the referee turned down the appeals.

Once again the Bridport defence kept a clean sheet, and whilst Shrewton applied more pressure on them in the second-half they did not look like scoring, with Sam Filkins once again not having a shot of any note to save.

Bees hit by Moores triple

Bridport Res 2

Hamworthy Recreation 3

BRIDPORT Reserves looked to be putting their poor run of results behind them when they led reigning champions Hamworthy Recreation 2-1 at the interval at St Mary's Field on Saturday.

However the unbeaten visitors currently holding third spot in Magna Dorset Premier League were too strong for the young Bees after the break and took all three points with a hat trick from Jamie Moores.

Bridport started slowly and were a goal down inside five minutes, but they fought back to level when Ben Clarke headed home Jamie Fry's free-kick midway through the half and then took the lead when Chris Herbst converted from the penalty spot after Martin Bulman had been pulled down inside the box.

Hamworthy Rec upped the tempo at the start of the second half and Moores equalised before completing his hat-trick with a free far post header.

Ben Clarke almost grabbed an equaliser late on but his header from Robin Jones' cross just missed the post.

Joint manager Steve Crabb said: "I thought all our good work from last week's 7-1 win over Hamworthy United had been wasted when we went one down so early but the lads did well to pick up their game and we deserved to be ahead at the break."

"However it seemed inevitable in the second half that they would equalise as they stepped up their game and although we lost there were several positives to take from the game."

The three subs Robin Jones, Gino Scovell and Tom Nott who all stepped up from the Thirds all did well when they came on, and that is good for the club that there is good, young talent coming through the ranks.

"We were not disgraced by any means although our record doesn't look good, but in a lot of the matches we have stayed in the game for 70 minutes but lost it in the final quarter and we need to improve on that."

Balti too hot for Bees

Bridport Thirds 3 The Balti House 4

BRIDPORT Thirds found The Balti House too hot for them on Saturday and slipped to their first defeat of the season in Dorset League Division Two after throwing away a two goal interval lead.

After a stunning start to the campaign the Bees have stuttered in recent weeks. Having won their first four games they drew three of the following four before this defeat.

Ali Kamara was in fine form for the Bees notching a hat trick. He gave Bridport the lead on 20 minutes when he reacted quickest when Balti keeper Andy Nott could not hold a shot.

Balti upped their game and Lee Cuff made a great save from Marco Nott's 30-yard shot before Ross Walker hit the bar with a blistering drive.

Despite the pressure, Kamara bagged his second to give the Bees a healthy interval lead.

Marco Nott pulled one back ten minutes after the restart from close range before Cuff produced two excellent saves from Tom Grattidge to keep the visitors at bay.

However they levelled the scores soon after when Adam Sargent headed home Grattidge's corner.

Balti moved up a gear and further goals from Marco Nott and Craig Knock put them in command. Although Kamara completed his hat-trick eight minutes from the end, Gary Harvey almost made it five with a shot that hit the post.

Bridport U15 1 Hampton Matravers 0

BRIDPORT U15 recorded the narrowest of victories against fellow promotion rivals Hampton Matravers on Sunday.

Due to injury and unavailability of key players the young Bridport team was forced to make many changes for this important clash with key central defender Tom McNamee standing-in between the sticks.

The Young Bees had the better of the opening period with the inform Kieran Mason providing the spark for the only goal of the game, his surging left wing run and deep far post cross was converted by Callum Pattinson following good work by Jordan Daniels.

The second-half was a totally different game with the visitors dominating for long periods, whilst Bridport failed to establish any meaningful rhythm or pattern to their play.

In the end it was Bridport's determination, defender Dan Baggs cleared off the line twice, that saw them collect all three points. Joint Men-of-the-Match were Will Miller and McNamee.

Bridport U13 7 Weymouth 3

BRIDPORT started brightly and Jon Paul Avery came close in the first minute. It took 10 minutes for the deadlock to be broken, and it was some superb wing play from Joel Eckett that created the chance.

Eckett rounded the left back and put in a perfect cross that was helped on by Liam Sayers to Owen Ward and he lobbed the ball over the keeper with precision.

Bridport continued to create chances. Avery skipped past two players and into the area and a smart pass found Liam Sayers who slotted home from close range. It was all Bridport, but Weymouth looked dangerous from the counter attack.

However, a long ball just after half-time gave Weymouth the opportunity to charge forward in numbers and finished past Joe Mace McNamee. 2-1

Sayers calmly side foot the third Bridport goal of the game to restore the advantage.

Then came the customary defensive lapses that we always seem to suffer from, and Weymouth scored two goals in quick succession to make it 4-3.

However, from then on in the game it was all Bridport and Rhys Hayter was chopped down in the area for a penalty with about 20 minutes left to go. Hayter made it 5-3 from the spot.

Then Bridport really seemed to play with some freedom and Sayers recorded his third hat-trick of the season. Eckett rounded off the scoring at 7-3

Joint Men-of-the-Match were Sayers and Hayter.

Heathlands U11 2 Bridport 4

JAKE Rowland gave Bridport an early lead which was doubled before half-time by Jaydon Scadding's penalty after Thomas Hyde had been fouled.

The hosts reduced the arrears after the restart but further strikes from Jake Rowland and Scadding took the young Bees clear.

Nathan Rollett and Jamie Herbert both put in good performances for Bridport.

Youngsters in for free at Dorch Town FC

DORCHESTER Town Football Club are pleased to announce the launch of the "Let's Be Avenue" initiative which will be trialling free entry to home games for all fans aged 16 and under and Thomas Hardye School 6th form students.

The aim of the initiative is, in the short term, to increase attendances at The Avenue stadium for home games by providing the opportunity for younger fans to watch games free of charge with the longer term aim of retaining those younger fans in future years.

The free entry will initially be trialled from this Saturday's game against Bishop's Stortford up to and including our boxing day game against Weston-super-Mare, when the success of the scheme will be assessed and a decision as to whether to extend the scheme further will be made.

◆ The games during the trial period are:
Saturday 6th November - Bishop's Stortford
Tuesday 9th November - Maidenhead United
Saturday 27th November - Basingstoke Town
Saturday 18th December - Chelmsford City
Sunday 26th December - Weston-super-Mare

Football Club Chairman Shaun Hearn said "Given our recent run of form I would hope there will be a good crowd for the game against Bishop's Stortford particularly as it will coincide with the launch of the Let's Be Avenue initiative."

"The younger fans are the future of the football club and it would be great to see as many youngsters as possible make use of the free entry."

If the scheme is a success then we will look at extending it further. We already charge the lowest ticket prices in the league and now children go to games for free we hope that this will make attending home games even more affordable for families".

Free entry will not apply to any cup games. 6th form students must produce a valid Thomas Hardye School student ID card at the turnstiles to be eligible for free entry.

For further information please contact Dan Fuge by email - dan@magpiestrust.co.uk or visit the official club website dorchestertownfc.co.uk.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

Double set back for Weymouth

WEYMOUTH 18 BLANDFORD 31

ALTHOUGH the home side gave their opponents the advantage of the slight breeze in the first period, they could hardly have got off to a better start.

Having bundled the visitors into touch on halfway, they won the ensuing lineout, sent the ball wide for blind side winger Quick to make a telling incursion into the line. He cut a good angle and released to Lewendon who got over 15 yards from the posts and, although the conversion kick went wide, Weymouth seemed to be in charge.

Blandford however got a score back before the game was five minutes old when they kicked a penalty after the home side had infringed on their own twenty two and in front.

They missed another a few minutes later and it seemed, at this stage, that the game was developing into a contest between the Blandford pack and the quicker home backs. The visitors' eight, although seemingly lighter, was getting well in the loose, and was doing well in the linesout.

Weymouth too were infringing rather too much and the Blandford kicker put his side into a 6-5 lead after 15 minutes with another simple penalty goal.

The home side failed to kick their unfortunate habit of infringing in front of their own posts and were duly made to pay after some twenty five minutes when the visitors' number 10 kicked his third penalty of the afternoon.

Weymouth did have a chance to reduce the arrears on the half hour, but Lewendon's penalty kick from near half way, although it threatened the posts, just slid wide. He made amends a few minutes later however by converting from some 35 yards and from a wide angle to take the scoreline to 8-9, only for the final minutes of the half to belong to Blandford.

They took up residence in the home twenty two, spurned a couple of penalty chances, preferring to kick to the corner. The tactic paid off for them when one of their pack squeezed over out wide after a ruck had formed from an ensuing lineout. The try was goaled with an excellent kick from near touch and Blandford led 16-8 at the halfway stage.

I felt at this stage, that the home side were still 'in with a shout', always providing that they stopped infringing, for they would have the advantage of the breeze in the second half.

As it was however, the first few minutes of the half were pivotal to the result and the 'rub of the ref' certainly did not go Weymouth's way. I thought they should have had a penalty in their opponents' twenty two directly from the kick-off, after a Blandford player had gathered a knock-on by one of his colleagues while standing in front.

The referee saw it differently and the visitors ran the ball into the home half, won a penalty, received a further 10 yards after Weymouth had 'rabbited', kicked the award to the corner and scored a try from the ensuing lineout that they converted.

Weymouth came back immediately however, via a Lewendon penalty goal but, with the score now standing at 11-23, they had much to do and they continued to be the architects of their own downfall, conceding a penalty more or less straight from the restart, and they were again made to pay.

Another Blandford try followed before the game was an hour old and, although it was unconverted, it took the scoreline to 11-31 and Weymouth now had to score three converted tries if they were to snatch the win.

Credit to them, for they did mount something of a rally and spent much of the last quarter in their opponents' twenty two. They gave away promising positions however by conceding penalties and, although a penalty try came to them, converted by Lewendon after they had pressurised their opponents' line, it was never going to be enough and their opponents held on with some comfort.

Weymouth will be disappointed with their performance. They conceded far too many penalties and got on the wrong side of authority, who did not have the best of games to my mind.

Their lineout too, did not function as well as we could have done and, all in all, they let the game slip away after a promising start.

DORCHESTER 2nd 8 WEYMOUTH 2nd 5

IT wasn't that good a day for the Weymouth second side. They lie in the runners up spot in the Dorset & Wiltshire League Division Three (South) and obviously have aspirations to be promoted.

They lost narrowly after a pretty close encounter at Dorchester thirds, who now join them in second place.

BRIDPORT 5 FROME 16

THIS was a typical clash between teams who lie very much in the bottom half of the table.

The visitors had a rather large and lumpy pack of forwards but, in the event, the first 30 minutes were evenly contested.

Play was confined for the most part, to midfield and the game was half an hour old before the first score came. Frome got it via an interception and, as the try was scored under the posts, as the majority of interception tries are, the extras were duly added.

The home side then roused themselves and got a score back before the change round when winger Cutting got over out wide for an unconverted try to take the score to 5-7 at the break.

Bridport could and should have gone on to win from there, for their opponents were not offering much more than solid competition. They proceeded to take wrong options consistently however, and to sacrifice attacking positions by the conceding of penalties.

They tended to infringe when in their own territory also, and the Frome place kicker converted three penalty awards in the second half to take his side to a win that they really needed, and one that puts some distance between them and the three bottom clubs.

DORCHESTER 2nd 32 BRIDPORT 2nd 12

THERE is no doubt that the impact of a club's injury list is more keenly felt in the second side than in the first.

Bridport seconds find themselves in this unenviable position at the moment and must be wondering just where their next win will come from.

Dorchester for their part, ran out comfortable winners and this bonus point win cements them in a mid table place.

CORSHAM 40 DORCHESTER 7

DORCHESTER would have known that a difficult task awaited them at Corsham, for their hosts have been playing well this season.

They would not have been aware however that Lady Luck was to desert them completely. They played into the breeze during the first period and spent much of the first quarter pinned in their own half during which time they conceded a penalty goal and an unconverted try, following a successful Corsham kick and chase.

A second penalty, kicked around the half hour, increased the home lead to 11-0, as Dorchester were beginning to work their way into the contest, only for disaster to then strike. They were attacking deep in home territory, won a penalty, took a quick tap and the ball carrier was tackled within ten yards of the award.

The referee thought otherwise and, while Dorchester were awaiting a second award, the home side kicked and chased. Balment then obstructed a chaser and, apart from receiving a yellow card, conceded a penalty try.

This took the score to 18-0 and, in his absence, a further try and penalty goal took Corsham 26 points ahead and virtually sewed up the result by the break.

Now with the wind at their backs, Dorchester did make a fight of it in the second-half, matching a Corsham converted try with one of their own, touched down by Balment, who converted his own score.

It was never going to be anything other than a consolation however, and Corsham sealed the win with another converted try near the end, that was perhaps also a little controversial.

Corsham are a very useful side and one which will be close to a promotion place at the season's end. They deserved to win this one and one can not really argue with their winning margin of five to one in tries.

Dorchester, for their part, will be hoping that Lady Luck favours them in a similar vein next time out.

PREVIEW

THE first Saturday in November sees the start of the autumn internationals, with England taking on the All Blacks. On the local front, the leagues take a Saturday off and local cups come to the fore.

As both BRIDPORT and DORCHESTER lost in their first round cup encounters, there are no arranged games for them at either first or second team level, although I know that the former club will be looking for a game in the fixture pool to try to re-establish some cohesion to their play.

WEYMOUTH are involved, after beating Sutton Benger in the last round of the Dorset & Wiltshire competition. They take on PUDDLETOWN and will probably have rather too much pace and power for their opponents who reside in the bottom half of the Dorset & Wiltshire League Division Two (South) at the moment.

The Weymouth second side, winners last time out in the cup, were to have played opponents from Swindon but these have conceded.

FIXTURES 6th November

Bridport v Pool Game, Honiton v Teignmouth, Honiton 2nd v Exeter Saracens 2nd Sidmouth v Brixham, Kingsbridge 2nd v Sidmouth 2nd, Sidmouth 3rd v Egham, South Molton v Sidmouth Colts, Weymouth v Puddletown.

Samways and Mike Holden kept the attack going until Haggerty ran in and score in a good position for Tom White to add the conversion.

After a short stoppage while one of the Ivel players was red-carded for stamping, Bridport carried on where they left off. Sustained pressure on a retreating Ivel defence eventually forced the error and the ball went loose to James Hansford who scored in the corner to seal the victory.

CHARD U16 7 BRIDPORT 25

BRIDPORT started well, stealing an early line-out and stepping through the defence, quickly passed the ball to Dylan White on the wing to score in the corner for the only score of the first period of a three 20 minute period game.

The blues started the second period pressing well and were soon rewarded with a five metre scrum after being held up over the line. A simple loop pass held the defence while Harry Richardson got the ball on the wing powering over the line taking two tacklers with him.

A quickly taken free-kick let Will Haggerty race through some weak tackling until halted by the full back, support arrived quickly, and Haggerty was on hand to take the last pass spinning out of a tackle to reach the line.

Chard capitalised on a Bridport error and intercepted a pass to run in close to the posts. By the third period replacements and injuries disrupted Bridport, however, Nat Halkes-Wellstead took a quick free-kick but was held up short.

The ball was recycled and fed to Tyler Adams who crashed through two tackles to score. The forwards provided the final score when Oliver Bowen-Ashwin picked up from the base of a five metre scrum and dived over the line.

Top girls rugby comes to Bridport

THERE is a chance to see top girls county rugby at Bridport this weekend which is hoped will instil interest in local girls to try the sport by taking part in taster sessions the following weekend.

Dorset and Wiltshire U18s and U15s girls teams are playing a county representative match against their Somerset counterparts at the Brewery Fields, home of Bridport Rugby Club, this Sunday (November 7th), both matches kicking off at 2pm. These matches have been rescheduled following the cancellation of the matches at Bridport last season.

With the Women's World Cup having just ended with England finishing as runners up, focus on the girls' game has been increased throughout the country, and it is hoped that a large crowd will take advantage of watching the girls in action.

There has been some interest expressed by local girls in starting an U15s rugby team at Bridport, and hopefully they will take this opportunity to watch the county team to reach the line.

Taster sessions for girls interested in playing rugby will be run by Bridport RFC coaches on November 14th and 21st for girls in year 7 and above starting at 2pm.

Any girls interested in seeing if rugby is the sport for them then please come along to the taster sessions and have a go, or contact Geoff Hunt on 07817751405 for further details.

LYME REGIS with Steve Percival
Improvements to The golf Course

THROUGHOUT the past two seasons the Lyme Regis Golf Club management committee have made some significant improvements to both the course and to the general appearance of the club greens and fairways.

In addition to what some would describe as "mischievous" placing of additional features and obstacles on the course, the emphasis has been very much on the improvement of information for both the visitor and club member alike.

In this respect there has been an improvement to the signage to the tees and the placement of a chart of each hole on each of the tees to assist the golfer in planning their strategy of play.

This has only been possible with the generous sponsorship of local businesses and club members. Additionally, the entrance to the club has been significantly enhanced by the hard work of club member Mike Hankey in the removal of excessive foliage at the entrance and the creation of attractive flower beds.

Furthermore, as perhaps one of the most significant enhancements to information available to both home and visiting golfers has been the erection of an events notice board clearly displaying the planned programme for the forthcoming two weeks.

This was recently made possible through the generous sponsorship of club members Royston and Emma Davies the owners of Lyme Regis Holidays.

Junior Golf: With weather conditions still favouring good scores the club junior section staged one of their regular Staleford competitions.

With scores, in the main, being very respectable George Seed playing exactly to his handicap, was yet again the winner. First three placings were as follows:

1st 36pts G Seed, 2nd 34pts G Yorke, 3rd 32pts Kai-To Li

Seniors golf: On 1st November, with a heavy dew still on the ground and a slight chill in the air, 77 club seniors took to the course to contest the monthly Staleford competition.

As the day progressed the temperature rose and the dew evaporated to give improved distance from the tee and run along the ground.

Although some found the recent growth of grass on the greens difficult to handle, scores were, in the main highly respectable. None more so than that carded by the new club captain Ray Farrell who recorded a 4 below handicap 40 points to win division 1.

Close behind were John Chance and Brian Clark with 38 points, with John achieving second place on countback. Division 2 was won by David Newell with 37 points followed by Bill Giles in second place on countback and Max Thorner in third with a level par 36 points.

BRIDPORT 32

Bridport extended their unbeaten run with a good win in their closest match so far, due in part to the uncontested scrums caused by the hosts' lack of a front row, thus depriving Bridport of one of their areas of strength in previous matches writes Geoff Hunt.

Even so, it was the blues who opened the scoring after 15 minutes when Eli Halkes-Wellstead got the ball 15m out and through some neat footwork, escaped the tacklers and touched down for the try.

The restart kick was knocked on and from the ensuing scrum, Ivel formed a maul in which they drove all the way to the Bridport line before the scrum-half dived through a gap in the blues close defence to even the scores.

A few minutes later, Ivel were on the attack again, with a long kick behind the Bridport defence. The rearmost Bridport went back for the ball and tried to run it out but was caught by the Ivel runners, fortunately he got the ball away to Will Haggerty who kicked for territory. Any kick is only as good as the chase, and this one was out of the top drawer as Haggerty arrived just as indecision struck Ivel and they watched the ball bounce - straight into his hands without breaking stride allowing him to motor all the way to the try line.

With 5 minutes remaining Bridport failed to get defenders away from the breakdown allowing the Ivel winger to score in the corner.

Speed sailors welcomed home

LAST week saw an interesting array of sailors from all over the globe, including 73 year old Fred Ball, competing in the Dakine Weymouth Speed Week at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy (WPNSA).

The event started in 1973 and is the oldest running speed event in the world, making Weymouth the original home of speed sailing in its pure form. The official British Championships ensured that all possible was done to allow harbour records to be broken, by kitesurfers, windsurfers and sailors. The event is centred on an accurately measured 500 metre course located in Portland Harbour. This provides the challenge for the speed sailor to pit his wits against the elements.

The lack of rules provides the ideal opportunity for both experts and dreamers to build the type of boats which, but for this event, would never see the light of day; competitors can be referred to as drivers, sailors or pilots. Mirabaud LX, competing in their first ever speed week, was designed to fly on its hydrofoils. 2010 once again saw many returning racers set to take on the course with their new craft, undeterred by their failures and delighted when their good ideas worked.

Competitors help develop the sport and grow it internationally, to push the limits of other national and world records. The course at Weymouth is suited to all competitors from boats to the kiters, so if the wind blows, harbour records could fall.

Despite being held in autumn every year to tie in with the Winter Equinox in the pursuit of high winds, there were no new harbour records for 2010 and the record still stands with Anders Bringdal, who achieved a speed of 38.2 knots in 2008.

The week, however, did see some exciting racing with trials taking part every day of the event and 33 knots being the highest speed recorded. The final standings were 1st place kite boarder, James Longmuir at 33.419 knots; 2nd place Sailboat, Kevin Greenslade at 32.753; and; 3rd place kite boarder David Williams at 32.075 knots.

John Tweed, Chief Executive at the WPNSA, commented: "Dakine Weymouth Speed Week holds a special place in the hearts of Weymouth and Portland residents as well as the speed challenging world. Dorset has been the chosen annual venue for this unique event since 1973 and international speedsters flock to the flat waters of Portland Harbour year on year to put their latest technological evolutions and experiments to the ultimate test.

"This historical event with a modern developmental hook will continue with the academy into the next decade and beyond bringing the delights of speed record breaking stars to our shores."

FIRST FOR LIV

West Dorset Warriors Swimming Club

LIV FREEMAN, aged 13, was one of nine debuts for Dorset in this year's British Gas ASA National County Team Championships, Division One, at Ponds Forge, Sheffield.

Liv was West Dorset Warriors' sole representative in the Dorset team, where the UK's top 20 county teams compete against each other.

A pupil of Thomas Hardy School, she has been swimming with the Warriors for seven years and thoroughly deserved her selection. Proud to represent her county for the first time in the nationals, she forewent the Warriors' own club championships which were held on the same weekend.

Liv swam the final freestyle leg of the 12/13 years girls 200m medley relay, helping the Dorset quartet beat neighbouring teams from Devon and Hampshire, and has greatly benefited from her first experience and looks forward to swimming for Dorset again.

DEBUT | Liv Freeman who made her debut for Dorset recently

YOUNG footballers from West Dorset will be taking part in a festival of football to test out the district's new third generation artificial pitch.

The state-of-the-art surface at Dorchester's Thomas Hardy Leisure Centre is filled with rubber crumbs and able to withstand more intensive use than a traditional grass pitch. It also needs lower maintenance and isn't affected by severe weather conditions.

On Saturday, November 6th, youth teams from Dorchester, Bere Regis and Puddletown will take part in a series of mini football matches and FA skill coaches and players from Dorchester Town Football Club will be on hand to help the aspiring footballers improve their technique.

The Magpies will be using the new pitch as the main training facility for the first team. The district council has been working with the club and other local teams to increase the number of young people playing football.

The surface, which meets international football authorities' standards, has been designed to improve player comfort, minimise injuries and reduce ball bounce.

The new supergrass can be used by the community and bookings can be made by contacting the leisure centre. Students at Thomas Hardy School will also be using the new pitch as part of their PE lessons.

West Dorset District Council Chairman Ronald Coatsworth will officially open the new pitch and give out certificates to those taking part in the festival.

Cllr Coatsworth said: "We are delighted that West Dorset residents and local teams such as Dorchester Town Football Club and the local youth teams now have access to these state-of-the-art facilities.

"Local people have been able to use the new pitch since the summer and we have been thrilled with the number of people booking the pitches.

This will be a great asset for West Dorset and a boost to local football. I hope these new facilities will encourage more people across the district to take up the sport."

Scott Symes from Dorchester Town Youth said: "This new surface provides an outstanding opportunity for local young players to enjoy their football and to develop their technical ability all year round, whatever the weather."

The district council secured £124,400 from the Football Foundation to resurface the artificial turf pitch and kick-start a three year programme to promote football in Dorchester and the surrounding area. Dorset County Council also provided funding for the new pitch.

Funded by the Premier League, The FA and the Government, the Football Foundation is the nation's largest sports charity. Launched in July 2000, the Foundation celebrated its tenth anniversary this summer and has so far supported 8,000 community sports projects worth £920m.

In Dorset alone it has funded 129 community projects worth £3.8m.

To find out more about booking the 3G pitch, call Thomas Hardy Leisure Centre on 01305 266772.

2nd round revised draw:

Colliton Hopewells v West Dorset Club

Weymouth & District Table Tennis

COLLITON C have set the early pace in the newly-formed third division as the only team to win all of their three opening fixtures that included a narrow 19-15 success over Broadway's newest club, Springfield & Sons.

Springfield stalwart Andy Millar and fellow father Steve Cockram set up the new team so that they could play alongside sons Sam Millar and Lewis Cockram, and it was Millar senior's experience that very nearly turned this match Springfield's way.

Millar returned a nine-sets maximum haul without dropping a single set but young Lewis Cockram could be proud of his four-games capture that included a terrific four-sets upset of veteran campaigner Eric Potter (4).

However both Valerie and Katherine Bundy weighed in with six sets apiece which, coupled with their last gasp five-sets doubles defeat of Andy Millar and Lewis Cockram, was enough to seize victory on the night.

Meanwhile the second division title race rarely is completely wide open as Colliton B have shown by winning just two of their opening four fixtures – enough though to top the table.

Amazingly Pilgrims have suffered five straight defeats but, such is the scoring system (where every set won counts), they still lie second in the table.

Possible the best game so far in the division featured both sides with Colliton just sneaking a 20-18 win.

Stuart Walden top-scored for Pilgrims with a full nine sets for the loss of just one game in a four-setter with Tony Bonnen (7).

Game of the night saw Richard Ellerby (4) muscled out by Bonnen with Phil Holdcroft and Barry Thomas both finding six sets it meant the hosts only had to find a single game in the doubles at 19-15 ahead to ensure victory which is exactly what they did in a 3-1 reverse.

In the top division it's Springfield A that enjoy a slender lead at the top that owes much to their resounding 28-12 success over Civil Service B.

Gordon (7) and John Bissett (9) were joined by new signing Sean Ferguson and the former Physiques and Shapes captain didn't disappoint as he overcame the challenge of Clive Stow (5), Steve Bill (4) and Sean Beauchamp (2) all in four-set games.

Stow started a stirring fight-back from 2-0 down against George Bissett, to finally stroll home to victory by dropping just five points in the next three games in a game that ended 7-11, 9-11, 11-3, 11-0, 11-2 in Stow's favour.

MATCH REPORT - SHIPTON GORGE A 24 YMCA 14

A LATE start to their season meant that Shipton began this match at the bottom of the league but they went straight into top gear with a good win over one of the division's stronger sides.

Richard Trim started where he left off last season with 9 points from 3-0, 3-1, 3-1 wins and, although he lost 3-0 to John Cox, Chris Glover triumphed 3-1 and 3-0 over Brian Handsford and Ken Brake. Gil Roberts also picked up 6 points with close 3-2 wins over Cox and Brake but lost 0-3 to Handsford to give the visiting skipper his only win of the night.

Roberts and Trim combined effectively to take the doubles 3-1 and round off a good evenings table tennis.

Clean sheets basis for success

By STUART BROOM

BRIDPORT manager Trevor Senior praised his team's performance in their victory over title rivals Shrewton United on Saturday, but what pleased him most was keeping another clean sheet.

"Whilst scoring goals is of course important to win games, I have been saying for a long time that it is imperative not to concede goals and our record of only conceding eight goals in ten games speaks for itself."

"We dictated the first-half and had a few chances to score, and although they improved slightly after the break, Sam Filkins did not have a shot of any consequence to save, such was the protection he had in front of him.

"Whilst it took us 75 minutes to score we could have won more comfortably, and it would have been an injustice had they got anything out of the game as they didn't deserve it."

Russell Legg, restored to the side in the absence of Jamie Symes, scored the only goal and impressed Senior.

"Russell was excellent and the goal just reward for a good performance, and if he continues this form he will be very hard to ignore."

He started the season very well and was a regular until he was suspended for an offence whilst playing for Beaminster last season. Unfortunately he has been unable to get back into the team following the run of success we've had, but he certainly took his chance well.

"It was also pleasing that despite having to make two changes, Gary Bulman replacing Darren Watts, the balance and the quality of our play was not affected, which shows the depth in strength of our squad."

Senior was also quick to defend Bulman who was red carded in the second half for an off the ball incident with Shrewton's Carl Jones who was also dismissed.

Bulman who has a reputation for being an aggressive player, missed the beginning of the season serving a suspension from last season and was sent off playing for the reserves in September following his return.

"I feel sorry for Gary because he was only defending himself. Jones clearly head-butted him after Gary had blocked his clearance, and after he stood his ground went to do it again. Gary put his hands up to protect himself but the ref saw this as an aggressive action and sent him off as well."

Senior was looking to use last night's Dorset Senior Cup second round tie with Swanage Town & Herston to give a few of the fringe players a run.

It is almost certain that Roger Cummings and Shane Evans will start but unfortunately Alan Hill is not available.
